Jolanta Wilsz

SOLVING COGNITIVE AND DECISION-MAKING PROBLEMS IN THE PROCESS OF TECHNICAL EDUCATION

Summary
In her article, the authoress presents a classification of problems to solve due to their functional character. The systemic conception of problems that appear in relation to all kinds of systems is discussed in detail. Two groups of problems are analysed: cognitive problems and decision-making problems. The authoress also presents implications resulting for technical education from such attitude towards the problems.