In the article some of the aspects of creative activity of pupils were presented. The article focuses on own activity through sole individual decision. It was proposed to test stages of creative problem solutions as a base for organisation and realisation of technical issues. Influences resulting in pupils’ development in the educational process regarding technical subjects and developing character of this process are presented, as well as and pupils’ activeness and its creativity aspects.