Witalij Dewiatow, Piotr Hałasik, Anna W. Lewkowa, Urszula Nowacka

THE INFLUENCE OF TECHNICAL PROCESS INPUT FACTORS ON THE OPTIMIZATION OF THE COST PRODUCTION

Summary

The market development sets a lot of requirements to modern enterprises. The requirements concern a high quality production as well as the effectiveness. In order to achieve the goals, the methods of MES (Manufacturing Execution System) should be used while planning more and more complex production processes. The only way to optimize the price and quality of the products is to take into consideration two aspects: technological and management.